

FRIDAYWALL MAGAZINE

Hyderabad This Week

March, 2026

Vol.4

REVISITING HYDERABAD'S CENTURIES OLD RAMA TEMPLES

As temple bells echo through the quiet village, Sri Rama Navami at the centuries-old Ammapalli temple unfolds as a living testament to devotion, lineage, and sacred artistry. Here faith, folklore, and a 300-year-old legacy converge seamlessly.

At Sangam Ram Mandir, centuries-old traditions, rare Meesala Ramudu worship continue to thrive. Tucked in the historic precincts of Langar Houz, this temple is a repository of oral traditions, ritual continuity, and rare iconography.

LEGACY OF SITARAM BAGH TEMPLE

The Seetharam Bagh Temple is a historic and spiritually significant temple located in the heart of Hyderabad. Known for its peaceful surroundings and cultural importance, the temple stands as a reminder of the city's rich religious heritage.

NEW ON THE FOOD MAP

Adhira & Appa Coffee: A New Chapter in Hyderabad's Café Culture

In Kondapur, Adhira & Appa Coffee blends generational brewing traditions with a globally inspired fusion menu, crafting a space where every cup tells a story and every plate redefines comfort.

TRENDING IN CINEMA/ OTT

Youth - Why This Tamil Coming-of-Age Entertainer Is Connecting with Gen Z Audiences

Youth Tamil Film (now in Telugu) is a coming-of-age entertainer that connects effortlessly with Gen Z audiences while still holding appeal for older viewers. Positioned among recent South Indian films in this space, it blends a familiar teenage love story template from Tamil cinema with humour, chaos, and emotional grounding.

Subscribe to Read More
WWW.FRIDAYWALL.COM